All videos are loaned free of charge to New Jersey based companies, organizations and businesses who provide safety and health training. Videos are available for a maximum period of two weeks. It is the borrower's responsibility to return the video to the NJDOL, Division of Public Safety, Occupational Safety and Health upon its due date. Failure to return videos when due may result in denial of future loan requests. All videos should be previewed before presentation to determine the appropriateness of the video for its intended purpose.
